

CONSENT TO RELEASE EDUCATION RECORDS

FERPA/Buckley Amendment

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of students' education records. FERPA prohibits a student's education records from being distributed to any person other than the student (i.e., spouse, parent, etc.) without written consent of the student.

Note: under Federal law, education records may be disclosed to parents of dependent students (as defined under the Internal Revenue Code) without the consent of the student.
