

Federal Direct PLUS Loan/Parent
William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program

Request for Loan Certification

The William D. Ford Direct PLUS Loan Program allows parents to borrow Federal funds on behalf of a dependent child who is an undergraduate. This loan must be used for educational purposes, and parents should only borrow the amount necessary to satisfy the student's costs of attending school. The PLUS Loan amount cannot exceed the Total Expense Budget minus the student's financial aid award. Parents should remember that these funds are a loan from the U.S. Department of Education, and the loan must be repaid.

You may be eligible to borrow a Parent PLUS loan to help cover the cost of your student's education. Only one parent may apply.

Go to www.dlenote.ed.gov to complete and electronically sign the PLUS Promissory Note. You will need your federal PIN to sign electronically. The federal PIN is the same PIN used to sign the FAFSA. If you do not have a parent federal PIN, you may request one at www.pin.ed.gov/
