

Faculty Star Award

An employee recognition program of Pulaski Technical College.

About the Star Award

The Faculty Star Award program recognizes exemplary performance by Pulaski Technical College faculty. All regular full-time faculty are eligible for nomination.

The Committee on Faculty Involvement will select one faculty member to receive the Faculty Star Award each month. Nominees who are not selected for an award are eligible for future consideration and/or re-nomination.

Monthly Faculty Star Award recipients will be eligible for consideration for the Susan K. Reid Award for Teaching Excellence, which is presented at the Employee Recognition Luncheon in May.

Nomination

The following items must be included in the nomination packet:

- Nominee's name, title, division, department and contact information
- Name of nominee's immediate supervisor
- Description of outstanding performance as outlined in the nominee's position description, related goals, and his/her specific contributions to the mission, goals and values of Pulaski Technical College
- Evidence of professionalism such as awards, honors, associations, committees, campus and community activities, etc....
- Letters of support from no more than three co-workers and/or community members that specifically address the nominee's qualifications for receiving the award
