

Citing Library Databases and E-books - APA Style

Journal or magazine article from a database:

1. Author.
2. Date of publication (in parenthesis)
 - A. For magazines: In addition to the year of publication, list the month and, for weekly magazines, the day.
3. Article title.
4. Journal or magazine title (in italics). Capitalize all major words.
5. Volume, issue and page numbers.
 - A. Article in a journal/magazine paginated by volume (continuous page numbering across all issues within a volume): Give the volume number (italicized), followed by the page numbers.
 - B. Article in a journal/magazine paginated by issue (each issue starts with page number 1): Include the issue number after the volume number (only italicize the volume number, not the issue number), followed by the page numbers.
6. DOI number (if available). If not available, list the name of the database in which you found the article.

E-book:

1. Author.
2. Date of publication (in parenthesis).
3. Title (in italics). Capitalize only the first letter of the first word of a title and subtitle, the first word after a colon or a dash in the title, and proper nouns.
4. Place of publication: publisher.
5. Name of e-book database.
