

Citing Web Sites and Web Pages APA Format

Cite as many of the following items that are available on the website/webpage:

- The name of the author/s or editor.
- Title of web site or the section of a site.
- The date of publication or last update, use (n.d.) if a date is not given.
- The URL.

Citing an entire website

WITH AUTHOR

Greater New Milford Area Health Community Task Force on Teen and Adolescent Issues. (2000).

Who has time for a family meal? You do! Retrieved from <http://www.familymealttime.org>.

AUTHOR UNKNOWN

GVU's 8th WWW user survey. (n.d.). Retrieved from http://www.cc.gatechedu/gvu/user_surveys.htm.

Citing a page or chapter from a website

WITH AUTHOR

Davis, R. (n.d.). Crossing the river Alliald. In Stories that I love. Retrieved from http://www.mystories.com/alliald_rivers.html.

AUTHOR UNKNOWN

Barriers to closing the gap. (2002). In losing ground bit by bit, low-income communities in the information age. Retrieved from <http://www.library/low-income/two.html>.